(g) Invalid or expired documents. SSA will not issue an original, duplicate, or corrected social security number card when an applicant presents invalid or expired documents. § 422.112 Employer identification numbers.

(a) General. Most employers are required by section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code and by Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations at 26 CFR 31.6011(b)-1 to obtain an employer identification number (EIN) and to include it on wage reports filed with SSA. A sole proprietor who does not pay wages to one or more employees or who is not required to file any pension or excise tax return is not subject to this requirement. To apply for an EIN, employers file Form SS-4, "Application for Employer Identification Number, with the IRS. For the convenience of employers, Form SS-4 is available at all SSA and IRS offices. Household employers, agricultural employers, and domestic corporations which elect social security coverage for employees of foreign subsidiaries who are citizens or residents of the U.S. may be assigned an EIN by IRS without filing an SS-4.

(b) State and local governments. To facilitate a State's bookkeeping, SSA will assign a special identification number to each political subdivision included in a modification to the State's agreement under section 218 of the Act. These numbers are not used for reporting purposes unless coverage is extended to periods prior to 1987. Then, the special number will be assigned and used for reporting the pre-1987 wages to SSA. This special number will also be assigned to an interstate instrumentality if pre-1987 coverage is obtained. SSA will inform the appropriate State or interstate instrumentality official of the assigned number by sending a Form SSA-214-CD, "Notice of Identifying Number.'
